WILSON SAYS RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY ASSURED

JUDGE GARY ALONE CAN PREVENT STRIKE OF STEEL WORKERS ON NEXT MONDAY

Declare Officials of the American Federation of Labor at Pittsburgh.

REPORT IS MADE TO GARY'S STATEMENT

Circulars Appealing to Men Are Being Mailed Out From Headquarters.

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Union steel workers in the Chicago district are reported today to be voting against the strike of steel workers set for Monday, according to what is considered a reliable source of information.

(International News Service.)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—"The steel strike order for Sept. 22 stands." This was the positive statement by Organizer Beaghen, of the American Federation of Labor, here this morning.

An official statement, signed by Chairman John T. Fitzpatrick and three other committeemen, in answer to Judge Gary's letter yesterday was given out today.

Judge Gary's reasons for refusing to meet the men were cited. 1—He did not believe the committee was authorized to speak for large numbers of the employees. 2—A conference with the committee would have been treated by them as a recognition of the "closed shop" method of employment. "If these are the real reasons actuating Judge Gary, surely they are not sufficient to plunge the industry into a great labor conflict. It is unfortunate that the employees are compelled to resort to a strike in order to prove the authority of their selected representatives, but as there is no other way the proof, in the form of a strike, will effectually remove all doubt in Judge Gary's mind."

Mr. Beaghen declared, "Mr. Gary is the only power on earth that can prevent it. Not even Mr. Gompers can stop it."

At the headquarters of the strike committee employees were busy sending out circulars in seven languages calling the men out next Monday.
In part, the circulars read: "Iron and steel workers, a historic decision confronts us. If we will but stand together now like men our demands will soon be granted and a golden era of prosperity will open for us, but if we falter and fail to act this great effort will be lost and we will sink back into a miserable and hopeless serfdom. The welfare of our wives and children is at stake. Now is the time to insist upon our rights as human beings. Stop work Sept. 22."

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—Insisting that they are meeting to perfect arrangements for the conduct of the nation-wide strike of steel workers, which is set for Monday, and not to consider any postponement, the representatives of the 24 international unions resumed their sessions here today. None of the labor officials would venture to say how long the striking might continue.

Anticipating the walk-out on Monday, Mayor George Lyle of McKeesport this morning ordered that the sale of firearms in that city be discontinued, where 20,000 steel men are employed in the mills.

JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS HONORS JOHN J. PERSHING

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Congress laid aside its dignity today to pay enthusiastic tribute to Gen. Pershing. The signal and unusual honor of a joint session of the senate and house to welcome Gen. Pershing was the tribute of congress to the leader of the men who fought and carried on to victory those principles which

ALLIES PLAN TO DEMAND FORMER KAISER FOR TRIAL

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Dutch government will receive, if it has not already received, formal demands for the ex-kaiser for trial before an allied tribunal, according to the Pall Mall Gazette. This newspaper states unofficially that the war council at Paris has decided upon a move for the extradition of the former war lord.

STORM DEATH LIST MAY REACH 300

MORE BODIES ARE BEING FOUND BY PARTIES OF SEARCHERS.

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, Sept. 18.—Governor Kilby has issued a call to all Alabama for immediate organization for relief of the people of the Texas coast.

(International News Service.) CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 18.—With reports of the finding of additional bodies of victims of Sunday's tornado along the gulf coast, officials today estimated that the number lost in the tropical hurricane would total close to 300. Army aviators, flying low over the flood-swept district, reported finding bodies swept inland for several miles by the flood tide.
Police parties report the finding of bodies almost hourly. Late estimates of the property loss place the damage at between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000.

REFUGEES ARRIVE

(International News Service.)
SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 18.—First refugees of the tornado swept district reached here this morning on a special train. Three hundred and seventy-five arrived so far. The refugees declare that the loss of life in the Corpus Christi section will be between 350 and 400.

SIX GUARDSMEN AT BOSTON WOUNDED EXPLOSION OF GUN

(International News Service.)
BOSTON, Sept. 18.—Shooting of 6 state guardsmen when a soldier's riot gun exploded at the Roxbury Crossing police station, and the trial of 19 metropolitan Park police officers who were suspended for refusing to go on duty after the walk-out of the Boston police, were the outstanding features of the police strike today.
The six guardsmen were wounded in the legs and arms.

STAGE PARTNERS SIGN A LIFE CONTRACT AT THEATRE WEDDING

Miss Stella Werner and Paul Chapman Appear at Masonic in New Role.

Deeply impressive was the ceremony said last night that made "life partners" as well as stage partners of Miss Stella Werner, of St. Louis, Mo., and Paul Chapman, of Oklahoma City, Okla., members of the Al Shaffer Company, a popular theatrical attraction. The marriage was solemnized on the stage of the Masonic theatre, directly back of the footlights, the officiating minister being Rev. W. P. McGlawn, pastor of the Central Methodist church. The audience, which taxed the capacity of the house, was hushed and still as the fateful words were said.

For the occasion, the stage had been beautifully decorated, a large wedding bell being suspended from the center, with ribbon streamers held by members of the Shaffer company. Under this canopy the happy couple stood while they were being

War's Greatest Hero Is Visitor Here Today

Alvin C. York Greets Many Citizens En Route to Huntsville for Lecture Tonight. Will Return to Mountain Home When His Lecture Tour is Completed.

Alvin C. York, sturdy mountaineer from Pall Mall, Tenn., world's greatest hero, conqueror of an entire German machine gun battalion, was here for several hours today.

From the time America's greatest soldier alighted from a Louisville and Nashville train from Birmingham until his departure this afternoon for Huntsville, where he will speak tonight, Sgt. York was the object of the gaze of hundreds of citizens, anxious to see what manner of man it is who, with a rifle and automatic pistol, killed more than 20 German soldiers and captured 132 more and for his feat won the highest decorations of the allied governments and a niche in the hall of eternal fame.

York, with the demure little lass he claimed on his return to the mountain fastness of his home, stood in the lobby of the Lyons this morning and modestly acknowledged the greetings of many citizens. Mrs.
York, small in stature herself, seems even smaller beside her towering husband.

Topped by hair of sandy red, York fairly radiates strength and determination. His head is well set, his shoulders are broad, his chin denotes the fighter, but it is his eyes of steel blue in which lay the solution of the questions that have followed the miracle in No-Man's-Land.

Wherein is the strength of purpose, the pure unadulterated 100 per cent American nerve and daring that enabled York to call upon the Hun battalion to surrender to a lone doughty boy? you ask. It is the heart of that deacon of the Pall Mall church, but his eyes are expressive of his heart.

His tongue may not have the gift of gab of an orator but his eyes are direct upon you every time he utters a syllable. What he says he means.
Perhaps that may be the reason for the instantaneous hit he has made during the present lecture tour being conducted to raise funds for aid of the mountain schools of his native state.

Sgt. York will go to Montgomery after his address in Huntsville tonight.

"How long will your present tour continue," he was asked.

"I do not know, it will be indefinitely."

Will Go Back Home
Many have wondered why York, in the face of theatrical offers, staggering to the average mind, chose to come back to Dixie and deliver his lectures for the benefit of the youth of his mountains without compensation for himself. But listen—When his tour is ended and the funds needed to carry on the work for which the hero has dedicated himself are raised, then again he is going back to Pall Mall.

"When your itinerary is complete," asked.

"I am going back home to Pall Mall."

A singular feature of Sgt. York's visit here is the fact that Lieut.
Joseph Woods, adjutant of York's unit and the officer who counted and certified to the number of his prisoners, recently returned to his home in Albany, after receiving his discharge from the army.

"Have you seen Lieut. Woods who counted your prisoners? His home is here you know."

"No, I haven't seen Lieut. Woods since we left France," York replied.
Mr. and Mrs. York were guests of Manager Bart, of the Lyons, while here.

Sgt. York spoke to the Decatur school children this afternoon at the request of the school authorities and prominent citizens.

Sgt. York was introduced by Joseph Woods, Prof. J. F. Collins acting as master of ceremonies. Prof.
Dyer, of Vanderbilt university, who is accompanying Sgt. York, also spoke. The addresses were heard by an audience which packed the school's auditorium.

MAGIC CITY TEAM WILL MEET LOCALS

Albany-Decatur's reorganized team will go into action for the first time this afternoon against Manager Thompson's fast Y. M. C. A. squad.
Barnes and Barnes will work for the "Y" and Manager Scott has not yet selected his twirling talent.

Friday and Saturday the Albany-Decatur warriors take on an aggregation of All-Stars from the Birmingham city league. A double-header will be played Saturday.

LEAGUE STOPS WAR, IS ALMON'S BELIEF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (Special).—If there had been a league of nations there would have been no war and without the league the tax payers of the United States are going to be forced to carry additional burdens to keep up a big army and navy, Congressman Edward B. Almon warned the house in a speech during the discussion of a bill to amend the war risk insurance laws.
With the league disarmament will follow, he said.

Congressman Almon also favored the amendment to the insurance laws, allowing more money for disabled soldiers and providing for the conversion of the insurance of all returned fighting men at a cost 20 per cent cheaper than in the old line companies. Many of the amendments have been endorsed by the American League.

WILD SCENES MARK PASSAGE OF DRASTIC PUBLIC HEALTH LAW

Members Declare That "Gag Rule" Was Applied and Offer Strong Protests

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, Sept. 18.—The wildest scene yet enacted during the present stormy session of the Alabama legislature marked the passage of the most drastic public health law of any state in the union, when the bill went through the house on Wednesday night by a vote of 42 to 37.
Many of its supporters voted with the opposition or refused to vote because of the application of the "gag rule" by administration forces. Representatives swarmed around the desk of the reading clerk demanding that the bill be read. When this was refused Representative Lee Long, of Butte county, gave notice that he would file a sworn statement that the bill had been illegally passed.

It places all municipal and pure health matters under control of the medical society and gives the people outside the medical profession no voice in the selection or conduct of local boards of health or health officers. It was charged that the bill builds up a powerful political machine for the doctors affiliated with the state association.

Judge Romaine Boyd, of Birmingham, will try non-jury civil cases in the Circuit court here Monday, the court having adjourned until that date.

Judge Boyd's arrival here probably will hang up a record for years to come in Morgan county. He will be the third judge to have presided at the present term and none of them is the regular judge of the court.

judge of Alabama, opened the

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WANTS MORE MONEY

WILL RAISE FIVE MILLION DOL-LARS TO MAKE WORLD
DRY.

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The Anti-Saloon League of America, in conference here today, would map out a campaign to raise a $5,000,000 fund to bring to a successful conclusion its proposed campaign to "make the world dry." More than 300 leaders of the dry movement attended the conference today, and are discussing ways and means of conducting the world campaign.

MEMBERS OF OIL CLIQUE INDICTED

ARE CHARGED WITH HAVING CLEANED UP A MILLION.

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Eight indictments charging 25 members of a "clique" with participation in the sale of unsecured oil and mine stocks throughout the country, which is said to have netted the crowd more than $1,000,000, were to be returned in the criminal court today. The charges in the indictment appear against the names of bankers, brokers, lawyers, politicians and men prominent in New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Mobile and Chicago.

Hillsboro Winner in Fast Contest

Hillsboro triumphed over Decatur on the latter's lot yesterday afternoon 4 to 0 in a fast game. Both twirlers went strong and with the exception of the sixth, when Hills-boro's scores were made, the teams fought to a standstill. Despite the fact that both squads had men on bases in several innings, neither was able to cross the plate until the sixth.
A running catch by Powell in right for Decatur was the fielding feature, though both teams fielded sensationally at times. With the exception of an overthrow to first, Hillsboro accorded their twirler perfect support.

Score by innings: Run.
Decatur 000 000 000—Hillsboro 000 004 00—Batteries: Lesser and Jervis; Hill and White.

BRITAIN CANNOT OUT-VOTE AMERICA IN NATION LEAGUE STATES PRESIDENT

Executive Explains No Action Can Be Taken Unless Vote Is Unanimous.

EXECUTIVE ACTS LIKE
HAS "ACE IN HOLE"

Shows Supreme Confidence in the Final Outcome of Ratification Fight.

(By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Ratification of the treaty of Versailles cannot be prevented, President Wilson declared here today. His statement was the culmination of a series of addresses in this city, beginning with his statement to "the women of San Francisco" yesterday and continued through last night's spiny meeting. He wound up his addresses here at the home of Senator Hiram Johnson at a "public luncheon" by repeating his declaration that there could be no doubt of the final outcome. The president, since his arrival on the coast, has talked like a man with "an ace in the hole," and his attitude has contained a swagger that has been designed to carry authority with it. Today members of his personal party declared that the outcome was in sight, and they insisted that Senator Johnson, who has been following the president, would not come to the Pacific coast. At the same time they insisted that the ratification is an absolute certainty.

EXPLAINS BRITAIN'S VOTE

(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—President Wilson denied today that Great Britain can out-vote the United States in the league of nations, or that she can overcome or affect the American representation. The president made his denial of this, which is one of the things the opponents of the treaty has made most of, in answering a series of questions addressed by the San Francisco League of Nations society.

"It is not true," said the president,
"that Britain can outvote us in the league for in every matter except the admission of new members to the league no action can be taken without the concurrence by unanimous vote of the representatives of the states which are members of the council, so that in all matters of action the affirmative vote of the U. S. is necessary and equivalent to the united votes of the several parts of the British empire, which cannot offset or overcome the vote of the U. S."
"The reason why Great Britain was given six votes was that the nations which make up the British empire are self-governing and autonomous in everything except foreign policy."

JOHNSON AT LINCOLN

(International News Service.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 19.—Senator Hiram Johnson, who spoke against the league of nations here last night before one of the largest audiences since W. J. Bryan spoke here a few days ago, resumed his "follow the president" trip today, leaving for Duluth, where he speaks Friday.

ARMENIA, THE LAND OF MANY MASACRES

Newspaper readers, accustomed to seeing Armenian massacres headlined must feel that conditions are again approaching normal, for the news agencies are once more sending out stories regarding the atrocities of the Turks and Kurds against this apparently defenseless people. The American Committee for the Independence of Armenia only yesterday gave out at New York a cable message which stated that one Armenian province had already been seized by Ottoman troops, or perhaps outlaws, and that the very existence of the nation was threatened.

It would be heartless and cruel to belittle the plight of the Armenians, if they are beset and imperiled, exploited and maltreated with anything like the frequency that is claimed. At the same time, the skeptical must marvel at the hardihood and recreative powers of a country that must have had its entire population slain a half dozen times in the past decade, if all the reports of Turkish outrages are accepted without a salt. During the world war, when accuracy of statement was no doubt minimized by a rigid censorship, the world learned with horror that the few million Armenians who had escaped previous onslaughts had been exterminated by German and Turkish soldiers. So soon after the war, it is monstrous to think that the Armenian survivors of the terrible struggle are again facing persecution. Under the circumstances it is certainly up to the United States and the allied nations to either establish an effectorate protectorate over this unfortunate nation or to curb the propagandists who keep world sympathy constantly aroused.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS SHOW SPLENDID GROWTH

The figures made public in the Daily yesterday in regard to the unprecedented enrollment in the public schools of the Twin Cities show a most gratifying growth in population and in educational interest. It is apparent that not only are there more children to be educated, but that the thirst for knowledge is also on the increase. This is most fortunate indeed and a happy augury for the future greatness of the towns. Having no colleges and no universities, few private schools, Albany and Decatur should be the more willing and the more eager to maintain their public schools on the highest possible basis. They should provide more adequate school facilities, buildings commensurate with the growth and prosperity of the towns. In fact, when consolidation is affected one of the first big undertakings should be the erection of a high school building that will compare favorably with the one at Florence, a city of smaller population but perhaps greater educational ambition.

EVEN THE FAR WEST OPPOSES FUTURE WARS

California, where President Wilson has carried the battle for the ratification of the peace treaty, is one of the few far western states menaced by Japanese immigration. Race prejudice there is highly developed, for the Nipponese are a thrifty and intelligent people capable of becoming competitors of the most formidable kind. They are hated not altogether because their complexion is brown, but also because they know how to wrest business away from the live American, and such a trait is one that does not appeal to the Yankee mind. But even in California, the home state of Senator Johnson and the hot-bed of anti-Oriental propaganda, there is no strong sentiment in favor of future wars. This was evidenced when an audience of 1,000 women at San Francisco answered Pres. Wilson's question, "shall we go to war over 'hunting agreement, the nation is 'Nos.'" The answer of the women also be the answer of the men. How much political capital not willing to fight to secure a better solution of the Shantung problem than he found at Paris, although that solution may not be altogether an ideal one.

Birmingham women are to send a delegation to Montgomery to protest against putting the public schools in politics. Another argument in favor of equal suffrage.

"United we stand, divided we fall."

The striking Boston cops would probably like to see the Massachusetts state guard also unionized, not to mention the regular army.

In failing to deny Bullitt's statement, Secretary Lansing has lowered the exchange rates on golden silence.

Voice of the People

Mr. Editor:

Will you allow me a short space in Albany-Decatur Daily to say a few things on the high cost of living. I will say that all men of every profession are doing better now than they have ever done in their lives. There is more money than ever before and money makes people happy in business. We want the high cost of living. Why? Because it gives the shops and all labor better wages; it gives the farmers better prices for their produce.

We don't see any use for strikes now when men can get from $7 to $10 a day for work. You men of the different unions had better stick to your bush and stick tight as a leech. If you lower the farmer's produce you will work in the shops and on railroads for half what you are getting now. All men are doing well under the high cost of living, that is what the old farmer wants.

We know our brothers outside of the farmers union don't want to hurt us, but just as sure as you cut the high prices you cut our prices on our produce, our cotton, corn, peanuts, peas, corn and everything we produce. We believe all the unions want to favor us all they can; they want to be our brethren. If so, let the prices alone like they are, for we can pay ten dollars for a pair of shoes under the present prices easier than we could pay two dollars when cotton was 10 cents a pound, or wages 50c to three dollars a day.

The laborers are doing better now than they ever did in their lives. Their wives and children are dressing finer, riding in fine autos and having swell times, as sure as you are born. You cannot go to Albany and tell the rich from the poor. The day laborers' wives and children are dressed as fine as the rich in Albany as well as other cities, so my brother union men, let well enough alone. The poor old farmer that feeds and clothes the world gets less for his labor than any of the laboring class; then go easy with your brother on the farm. We are proud that the wage earner is doing so well. We love to see you all doing so well, and enjoying life.

Don't cuss the merchant so much. He has to pay his clerks, house rents, taxes, lights and everything out of his profit of selling goods. Of course some merchants sell for much profit, but if it wasn't for profit I never would work another cotton patch. But we farmers will not get the cost of production this year; it has cost over 50 cents a pound to produce this cotton crop. My brother union man outside of the farmer's union, we believe you are our friends. We farmers love all the unions, but you very well know that cotton is king of the South as wheat is king of the North, so if cotton goes below production we farmers are gone and the merchants and wage earners with us.

Say, about 40 per cent of the world is now tilling soil. That 40 per cent is feeding and clothing the world. The other 60 per cent is doing something else. So you see how badly the farmer is needed. Then hold him up. You can do it, so lend a helping hand to the old straw hats that make you bread and meat, and make the cotton to clothe your wives and children and pay for your autos that you ride.

Respectfully,
J. J. BISHOP.

Girl! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. It is harmless and never irritates.

American Soldiers Take French Course

PARIS, Sept. 18. — Sixty-three American soldiers—officers, non-coms and men—have just completed courses in French farming and gardening at the French National Horticultural School at Versailles.

By arrangement with the Franco-American War Commission, M. Boret, Minister of Agriculture, approved this plan of giving the Americans the best possible insight into French methods of land culture. The class worked in the old kitchen garden of Louis XIV, laid out as "Le Potager du Roy" by La Quintinye, in 1678. Aided by interpreters, professors of the National Horticultural School gave practical demonstrations of fruit and vegetable growing and periodical visits were paid to the famous State and municipal nurseries in and around Paris.

The class was under the control of Lieutenant Hildreth and consisted of ten horticulturists, twenty farmers, sixteen students, two chemists and sixteen of various occupations. "They were exceedingly apt and enthusiastic pupils," said the director of the school, "and we hope they will be able to introduce our methods in their own farms and gardens with profit to themselves. Rank did not count in the class. A Red Cross colonel and a captain were quite ready to shovel and wheel away soil in teams with private soldiers."

ENGLAND STARTS AVIATOR COLLEGE

Cadets Admitted After Competitive Examination and Graduates Will Be Commissioned Officers in Royal Air Force.

By FLOYD MacGRIFF, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—England's first air-force cadet college will be opened in February, 55 cadets being admitted by competitive examination. Graduates will become permanent commissioned officers in the Royal Air Force.

Candidates for the examinations to be held in November must be between seventeen and a half and nineteen years old. The course will last two years. During the second year the cadets will be taught to fly.

Among compulsory studies will be English, English history and geography, mathematics and some foreign language.

The cadet flyers' college will be administered by the Air Ministry, and so far as aviation is concerned will try to do what the Sandhurst Military Academy does for the army.

Cadets' expenses will be borne by the State.

The Gum Tree.

The Australian eucalyptus, or, as it is commonly called, the gum-tree, has been grown successfully in many countries, and in New Zealand it has been found that its growth is in favorable spots, faster than in Australia. In Brazil the authorities recognize its value for timber.

High Minded.
The teacher was impressing upon her scholars the need of saying their prayers. To illustrate the lesson she showed the class a picture of an Arab, with head between his hands, and looking upward. "Now, Billy Cubbs," she said to a boy who had not been paying close attention to her words, "what is that man doing?"
"Er—er—please, teacher, he's a lookin'—planes."—Blighty.

A PRENUPTIAL COMPLIMENT

At the home of Solicitor and Mrs. D. C. Almon merriment reigned supreme last evening when their daughters, Mrs. T. H. Alexander and Miss Kathleen Almon entertained at Bridge in compliment to Miss Margaret Penick and Mr. T. M. Jones, Jr., whose wedding will be the event of next week.

The whole lower floor of the hospitable Almon home was opened for the arrangement of the large number of card tables and decorated with slender crystal vases of white chrysanthemums and pink roses.

Mrs. Almon received her guests, wearing a white Messaline veiled in black net. She was assisted by three of her daughters: Mrs. T. H. Alexander, very attractive in Lavender organdy with touches of Lavendar velvet; Miss Kathleen was handsome in a little pink organdy, its fluffiness, was very becoming to her youth and was finished with a large pink bow, worn at the back. Annie Fay, still a school girl was dainty in a beruffled white organdy.

The bride elect wore a frock of blue pan velvet, the front had a set in panel richly embroidered in brilliant shades.

The gathering seemed like old times, most of the men had returned from overseas duty and being with the girls they had gone to school with, they had many a jolly laugh as frolics of former days were recounted. Bridge had rather a slow time pitted against such fun, but each progression added zest to the fun.

At the conclusion of the game Edwin Shackelford had made top score for the gentleman. Misses Helen Wallace and Rhea Lide were presented dainty hamperchiefs. The bride and groom were presented crystal ice tea glasses. Afterwards tempting ices in which the decorative motif was repeated. These playing were: Margaret Penick, Mary Penick, Leta

Bess Harrison, Marjorie Palmer, Elsie Alexander, Anne Jones, Helen Wallace, Trixie Scheer, Rhea Lide, Janie Morrow, Marie Hicks, Evelyn Blackwell, Pansey Russell, Marjory Raney, Mable Nesbit, Ruth Gibson, Virginia Carswell, T. ### MACON WILL VOTE ON COP PROBLEM

(International News Service.)
MACON, Sept. 18.—Macon has adopted the easier way to solve her problem—whether the police and firemen will be permitted to belong to a labor union. The order adopted by the civil service commission providing that members of the police or fire department could not remain in the service has been suspended, and the question will be decided at the polls by the people of Macon at the city election, which is near at hand. Both police and firemen continue their duties with union cards in their pockets.

LOCAL MEN BUY FINE JERSEY COWS

Music and Chatter of Talking Machine at Night is a Mystery

(International News Service.)
BOSTON, Sept. 17.—Wanted—An njection to restrain a haunted talking machine from talking to itself during the nighttime.

The refractory conversation box is the property of Captain Michael Boyle, of Engine Company No. 16, who lives on River street in Dorchester Lower Mills. Today the weird performances of the magic talking machine were much discussed in that neighborhood.

During the night the doughty fire captain heard the machine playing a weird melody "like sweet bells jangled out of tune," and talking erratically to itself, as if it were intoxicated. He arose and shut it off. No record was in evidence. He had no sooner got back to bed when the strange tune began again. Captain Boyle arose again and once more after an "Avaunt ye's" succeeded in reducing the machine to silence.

The thing happened a third time with no human agency in evidence and the captain gave it up. The uncanny music continued until almost morning.

Captain Boyle is inclined to think the phenomenon was due to some action of the electrical storm on the delicate apparatus of the graphaphone.

Hadn't Seemed to Work.

An oldish man in dusty-brown clothes and with a rusty-brown beard met up with a pin. It was shining sharply bright on a flagging, and he stopped to pick it up.

He had stiff joints and his fingers were in that state informally known as bungly. So he had trouble picking up the pin.

A young man paused to offer his services, but the old one refused. He just grunted and grumbled until at last victory came his way. Then he straightened up his rickety joints and put a hand on his back.

"I'm not as young as I used to be,"
he admitted, as gently as his joints would allow. "But you know the old saying:

"See a pin and let it lay, you'll have bad luck all the day. See a pin and pick it up, and you are sure to have good luck."

"So I never pass one by."
And yet he didn't look as lucky as a man ought to be who had made a life habit of picking up pins.—Washington Star.

Improvements in New Hupmobile

Following its usual practice, the Hupp Motor Car Corporation has in the past few months introduced into the production of its present model—the Series "R"—a number of minor refinements in body and chassis design and construction.

Announcement of such recent improvements was made coincident with the increase in price of its Touring and Roadster models to $1450.00, and the placing of a $2185.00 price on the Sedan and Coupe.

These slight changes represent the endeavor of Hupmobile engineers to perfect each part of the car to its highest efficiency or beauty. It is believed that the good taste of Hupmobile design should be far longerlived than one season, or one year.
The appearance of the present model embodies the essentials of permanent style and good looks.

An improved design steering gear of more substantial construction has been adopted, insuring maximum efficiency from this important feature.
Slight alterations have been made in front springs, increasing their usefulness and durability.

A rearrangement of the exhaust and intake manifold insures quick preheating of fuel, and consequent increase in efficiency. A new design front axle, of stronger construction, is being used, with Gurney ball bearings. Changes have been made in material and design of the driving pinion and ring gear.

The Alemite type grease cup has been generally adopted for spring shackles, spindle bolts, etc. In this system the grease is forced by a greasegun pressure of some 200 pounds to those parts requiring lubrication. Grease can be forced through the spring bolts and to other spots so quickly that the entire car may be greased in twelve minutes.
The general condition of "messiness" usually attendant on turning down grease cups is completely eliminated.

The elimination of possible body rattles for squeaks has been aided by changes in construction of the body cowl. An improved type windshield, in addition to being more rain proof, is also noiseless.

The headlight support and brackets are arranged so as to permit quick adjustments sideways, or up and down. The lamp bulb may easily be focussed by an outside adjustment. Night driving is made more pleasant and safer by the ease of these adjustments.

Comfort has been increased by the addition of one inch to the dept of the front seat cushion, and two inches to the height of the back of the front seat.

The increase in the height of the cowl and larger size radiator add to the charm of the car's already distinguished beauty. Rear fenders have been redesigned, and contribute their quota of good looks.

These chassis improvements are general on all models. Particularly in the Sedan and Coupe have the latest tendencies in body design found expression. The upholstery is deeper, of even better grade cloth than in the past. In every respect the new Hupmobile enclosed cars are worthy upholders of the Hupmobile reputation.

The Hupp Motor Car Corporation offers four body types; the standard Touring car, a Roadster, a Coupe and a Sedan—all being mounted on the same chassis.—Advertisement.

A FOOL AT 40

It is an old proverb that every man is either a fool or a physician at 40. Well, I fooled along for 40 years in the practice of pharmacy and the study of medicine and therapeutics before I discovered the wonderful prescription for Number 40. For The Blood. There is more of this wonderful prescription sold and used by the citizens of our home city than all other blood medicines combined. It is indicated in all depraved conditions of the system. In blood poisoning, in sores, ulcers, eczema and skin diseases. In chronic rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, stomach, kidney and liver troubles. J. C. Mendenhall, 40 years a druggist. Houston, Texas, Jan. 22, 1919. J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind. Dear Sir: "Having suffered from 12 to 18 months with a nervous breakdown, said by physicians to be sciatic neuralgia, causing general toxic poisoning and seeing your advertisement in the San Antonio Express, I called on Dr. A. M. Fisher, Druggist. He recommended your prescription Number 40 which I have been using for three months and have received great benefit from it. Sleep well, good appetite, have gained several pounds in weight, get up feeling fresh every morning. Have no pains.
My nervous system has become nearly normal." Respectfully, J. L. Du-

TAD'S TID-BITS

(International News Service.)
New York, Sept. 17.

The following letter is from Jim Coffroth. His choice is Jack Dempsey. Coffroth had more champions fight at his club than any other promoter that ever lived—the chances are that his pick is pretty good.

DEAR TAD:

Who was the greatest fighter I ever saw? Kind of hard, that one, when you limit us to one, and two of the best ever are now in the ring—Heavyweight Dempsey and Lightweight Leonard. They would both have licked all that went before them. But as only one must be discussed we will take Jack, as he is the bigger of the two.

Every world's champion from Sulhave lost it in fit time to this new star. He would have taken John L.'s measure in two, where Corbett consumed twenty-four rounds; licked Corbett in six, where Fitz rounded out fourteen accomplishing that. Fitzsimmons would have been toppled in one or two and Jeffries in about eight rounds. You know Jeff was a bear for punishment.

Then comes a rather hard one—the big darkey, Johnson. Litter was the world's greatest defensive fighter and would have stood the gaff for sixteen or more rounds. Willard, we know, was bowled over in one round, but incompetent timing and refereeing forced it to three. Why should he have done these things and why is he such a great fighter? Because in his curriculum he was not taught nor did he learn to swing. He hooks with his right and never misses with either hand. What other champion was as accurate in his hitting, as stiff a pancher? Can he go the route? He doesn't need to. For a long time to come we will not discover whether he is a distance fighter, as his opponents will go out in a round or two.

JAMES W. COFFROTH.

Willie Meehan's Sweet Tooth
George Bagan, the taxi king of Frisco, met Willie Meehan on Market street the other night and invited him into John's Grill for a bit to eat.

"No thanks," piped Willie, "I just fed and I feel pretty full."

"Well, come and have a bit of something," said Bagan.

Willie followed and said, "Oh, I'll have a bit of dessert, George, while you're eating."

The pair strolled in and after being seated Bagan handed Willie the bill of fare saying: "Here, Will, take a slant at the line of march and see what dessert you'll have."

Willie gave it a good up and down, then tossing it aside said to the waiter: "Bring me a minute steak and friend potatoes."

To our many friends that came to us in the dark hour, when our precious daughter and sister, Anna, was snatched away by the ruthless hand of death, we wish to express our appreciation and thanks. You can never know what it meant to us; it enabled us to look up through our tears, and catch the full significance of the promise of our blessed Lord, when he said: "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee."

TODAY

You Can't Kill Truth.

Police, Teachers, Nurses.

Automobile Murders.

(By Arthur Brisbane.)

Colonel Alfred Dreyfus was decorated yesterday as an officer in the Legion of Honor, in recognition of gallant war service.

He is the Dreyfus imprisoned on Devil's Island because he was a Jew and there was a conspiracy among self-styled aristocrats in the French army and French politics to ruin him and promote anti-Semitism. The truth comes out at last. Too bad that Zola, the courageous fighter who saved the honor and life of Dreyfus, is not alive to know of it.

A strike of policemen, suddenly called, is not an ordinary strike. It is a betrayal of trust, an invitation to criminals to rob those that are the policemen's friends, the public.

It has been threatened in Boston that organized labor would call a general strike to help the striking policemen.

This would mean dark streets, transportation stopped, food supplies cut off. But organized labor will NOT call any general strike.

Organized labor will not war on the entire public which in self-defense would be compelled to war on organized labor, which would be a one-sided fight.

Men have a right to strike. Women also.

But if a nurse girl struck, and dropped her baby in the gutter, she would lack the moral support of the community and be told that she ought not to undertake the care of a baby unless she meant to take it safe home.

The responsibility of the police is as great as that of a baby's nurse or a school teacher, greater than that of the teacher.

A speeder is held by the Grand Jury for killing a child while speeding.

The testimony shows that he was unable to stop his car before the little girl killed had been dragged one hundred and twenty-five feet over the pavement.

If the charge is true, that is murder. And children will be continued to be killed thus by reckless drivers until a number shall have been punished as a murderer is punished usually.

If that child in the street had been an elephant, or a horse big enough to wreck the car, the speeder would have stopped in time. He went on because there was risk only to the child's life, none to his life. Punish murders of that kind as other murders are punished, let drivers know that a child in the street means danger to the life or liberty of the driver.

ANOTHER SATURDAY POST STORY FOR BERT LYTELL

"The Lion's Den," is Latest Metro Play to be Shown at the Delite Theatre Today.

"The Lion's Den," the latest Metro play in which Bert Lytell is starred, will be the feature at the Delite theatre today.

This is the second story from the pen of Frederick Orin Bartlett, the noted author, in which Bert Lytell has appeared—the first being "The Spender," a production which caused countrywide acknowledgement for its unusual charm. Both these stories first became popular through the medium of the Saturday Evening Post.

"The Lion's Den," tells of a young clergyman who desires to save the boys of his flock from the evils of the street by offering them, instead, a well-equipped club. How his project seems doomed to failure through the lack of funds, and his ultimate decision to enter the "lion's den of commerce," and earn the money himself are incidents which make a play of unusual strength and human appeal. It is tense with gripping moments though generously lightened by flashes of humor distinctive to the young actor. There is also a romance of charm and beauty which crowns the efforts of the young clergyman with deserving happiness.

Mr. Lytell is surrounded by a cast of noteworthy players among whom are Alice Lake, Joseph Kilgour, Edward J. Connelly, Augustus Phillips, Howard Crampton, Seymour Rose, Alice Nowland, and Mother Anderson. The play was directed by George D. Baker.

Callus? "Gets-It" Will Peel It Off!

Nothing on Earth Like Simple "Gets-It" for Corns or Calluses.

A callus or thickened skin on the sole of the foot, which often makes walking a misery is of the same nature as a corn. "Gets-It"

Use "Gets-It" and Dance, Even with Corns removes it as easily as it does the toughest corns. By using a few drops of "Gets-It" on the callus, you will be able to peel it off with your fingers in one complete piece just as you would a banana peel. It leaves the skin free and smooth as though you never had a callus. You need no more fussy plasters, sticky tape, "package" bandages, knives or saws for corns or calluses. "Gets-It" is the national corn remover, the biggest on earth, used by millions. It never fails. You'll work, play and dance at ease in spite of corns. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

EARLY BUILDING FOR SUCCESS

Youth's Wise Employment of Leisure Hours Means Everything in His After Life.

If the young man could only assimilate very early in his life the fact that merely to live and eat and drink and sleep, and then die, is not enough, but that he must rob himself of many of the pleasures usually taken up by young men if he means to make his life of the highest possible use to the world, he would set his foot on the pathway to accomplish something worth while.

There is no harm in billiards or pool or in dancing, baseball or card-playing or any one of the scores of different diversions and recreations open to young men. The natural inclination usually is to devote a large part of the leisure hours of young manhood to such pleasures. But the youth who is really earnest in his ambition to do something worth while will discipline himself to resist such temptations during his early, formative years, for the whole fate of a man is largely determined by how he utilizes his plastic years. He may be restricted by circumstances, by environment, by family ties in his selection of his daily work, but every young man, particularly nowadays, has many hours that he can call his own, and it is how he chooses to use these hours that counts most and tells most.—Forbes Magazine.
